January Movies
Fridays starting at 1:00 p.m.

January 3—Art of Racing in the Rain
(PG-13, Comedy, Fox 2000 Pictures, 110 minutes)
An inspiring tale about a man and his best friend, a philosophical golden retriever, who knows a thing or two about relationships. Based on the bestselling novel by Garth Stein.

January 10—Cold War
(PG-13, Biography, Universal 1440 Entertainment, 89 minutes)
A passionate love story set in Cold War Europe. An unlikely couple fall in love, betray, abandon and yet support each other. Nominated for Best Foreign Film at the 91st Academy Awards (2019).

January 17—Where’d You Go, Bernadette?
(PG-13, Comedy/Drama, Annapurna Pictures, 109 minutes)
Bored and frustrated after years of sacrificing for her family, a mom journeys to reconnect with her creative passions without telling her family. Based on a bestselling novel by Maria Semple.

January 24—Ad Astra
(PG-13, Adventure, New Regency Pictures, 123 minutes)
After an interstellar power surge kills thousands of people, an astronaut journeys to the source of the mysterious surge—the outer reaches of our solar system, where his father disappeared 30 years ago.

January 31—Pain and Glory
(R, Drama, El Deseo, 113 minutes)
An aging film director reflects on his life, on the “pain and glory” that shaped his art. Loosely based on director Pedro Almodóvar’s life and nominated for two Golden Globe awards for 2020.

FREE ADMISSION—BRING A FRIEND!
Not all movies will be suitable for all audiences, and movies may change based on availability without prior notice. All movies will have closed captioning when available.